

Don't let the cost of driver's education be a roadblock —

Apply for the GPS (Guided Partners in Safety) Scholarship at chainlaw.com

CHAIN | COHN | STILES

At the Law Office of Chain | Cohn | Stiles, where our lawyers specialize in helping accident and injury victims, we know driving is a privilege that comes with great responsibility.

We also know the cost for driver's education can be a challenge for many families.

The GPS Scholarship is designed to support a new generation of drivers, build guided partners in safety... and help pay for your driver's education.

To qualify, applicants must:

- Be 15 - 17 years of age (or turn 15 years in 2020)
- Have at least a 2.5 GPA
- Be enrolled in a Kern County high school
- Provide a current high school transcript
- Write a 200-word (maximum) creative essay answering:
"Why do you want to drive?"
- Signed parent or guardian media waiver. If selected, you may be asked to share a photo/video of yourself to be shared on the law firm's social media platforms.

To apply, visit chainlaw.com

All applications must be submitted using the online application. Questions can be emailed to gpsscholarship2020@gmail.com

Deadline is March 31, 2020

Driver's education will be conducted through Kern Driving and Traffic School: kerndrivingandtrafficschool.com
